

The Mighty Pen and the Magic Drawing Board

Once upon a time, PEN decided to take part in the Budding Writers Project 2009. It had lots of ideas but couldn't seem to put them into proper writing. PEN needed to find a partner that could draw too. Thus, PEN went around asking for help. PEN searched and found DRAWING BOARD. DRAWING BOARD loves drawing and creating characters. However, DRAWING BOARD had problems making its characters come to life. Both of them found out about the BUDDING WRITERS CREATIVE WRITING CAMP where they could get help to improve their skills!

The Magic Drawing Board

Students will learn from this camp:

- How to create/draw and customise their own original characters to use in their stories
- How to draw a simple character using freehand
- What the common media that designers use to create/draw artwork are
- How to enhance their characters aesthetically

The Mighty Pen

Through a series of instructional and practical exercises, the trainers will guide the students to:

- Learn how to improve their writing skills
- Record their own observations and thoughts
- Develop their thinking skills and ability to convey in writing their thoughts as clearly as possible

Come join PEN and DRAWING BOARD as they uncover their potentials at the BUDDING WRITERS' CREATIVE CAMP!
